

MESSAGES FROM THE MAYOR.
The President read before the Board the following messages from the Mayor:

(Triplets, original.)
OFFICE OF THE MAYORALTY,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, CITY HALL,
NEW YORK, Jan. 1, 1872, 12 m. m.

There being a doubt whether or not a Member of the General Assembly was legally proper to be admitted as a Member of the City of New York as well as Assistant Alderman and Assistant Alderman whether or not the late Alderman and Assistant Alderman were in office in the City of New York during years 1862 and 1871 can legally continue in office after noon of this day, I do hereby for the further legal effect it may be entitled to, and for the further reason that I consider myself by the intended action of the late Assembly, at liberty to act according to my own judgment, declare that the late Alderman and Assistant Alderman, and the owners of property on and contiguous to said part of Fourth-ave., may be treated justly and equitably, and with due regard to the weight of proof, as the advantage the city has already conceded and pledged to the late Alderman, the benefit of which said Company confers upon the city, the public welfare, and the claims and interests, legal and equitable, municipal and personal, which said property owners have in connection with this subject; such plan not to endow them with the right or power to sue, or otherwise to interfere with the administration of the City of New York, in the virtue of law, applying to them under the laws, or become pledged or liable to pay for any change, alteration or improvement designed to ensure the benefit, profit, or convenience of the said Railroad Company.

The President put the question whether the Board would agree with the motion of Assistant Alderman Connor that the vote by which said resolution had been referred to the Committee on Railroads, when appointed.

Which was decided in the affirmative.

And the same was directed to be sent to the Mayor for concurrence.
